MISS WHITE, HOSTESS OF BREAKFAST.

Miss Bunola Wilhite, who has been charmingly entertained since her engagement to Mr. Cliff Marchbanks, was announced early in November, was the honoree of a breakfast given on Saturday morning by Miss Marie White, at her home, "Mildred."

Covers were laid for ten, at a beautiful appointed table in the dining room. The color scheme emphasized in the decorations, and the menu, was yellow and green. Forming a centerpiece for the table were yellow chrysanthemums surrounded by green candles in crystal holders with yellow shades. Yellow chrysanthemums, were also used as favors and the name cards were attractive designs of cupids. The guests besides the honoree were: Mesdames Stacy Wilhite, Benton Carlen, Edward Neal, Claude Darwin, A. G. Maxwell, Robt. Lowe; Misses Blanche Darwin and Keith Ford.

ENJOYABLE BRIDGE PARTY.

Among the many pre-nuptial affairs given for Miss Bunola Wilhite, none was lovelier than the afternoon bridge party given by Mrs. A. G. Maxwell on Tuesday, Nov. 22. Misses Blanche Darwin, Sallie Claiborne and Clarissa Maxwell assisted in receiving the guests.

Four tables were arranged for the players in the living room, which was very pretty in the decoration of autumn flowers. Adding to the interest of the party was the surprise showers for the honoree, each guest was asked to bring a gift appropriate for bride. These were presented in an attractive way. The highest score prize was also won by Miss Wilhite.

Following the game, dainty refreshments were served, featuring a green and pink color scheme. The cakes were heart shape and decorated with the bride's initials.

The players were joined late in the afternoon by Mrs. C. C. Fowler, Mrs. R. L. Farley and Mrs. Q. M. Smith.

MISS BARNES ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE.

On Tuesday afternoon, a delightful bridge party was given by Miss Matilee Barnes, at her home, on Washington Ave., in honor of Miss Bunola Wilhite, who was the recipient of so many parties before her marriage on Thursday.

For the occasion the reception room was made bright with quantities of pretty flowers. Dainty score cards, having a miniature bride couple for the cover, were used for the game, in which the highest score was made by Mrs. A. G. Maxwell, an attractive prize being given her. A hand-made dressing table cover was the gift given to the guest of honor.

A delicious salad course was served. Small, yellow nut baskets were used as souvenirs of the afternoon. The members of the Round Dozen Club and a few additional guests were invited to be with the honoree.

Miss Margaret Moore, who is a student of Ward-Belmont spent the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Moore in Algood. She brought with her a school friend.

Miss Matilee Barnes has returned from a delightful visit in Nashville. Don't forget the Poultry Show, Dec. 8th and 9th, at the Staley Block, north-east corner of the Square.
